Memorandum For: [redacted]

Subject: Draft Memorandum

1. I am not sure of the purpose of the draft letter to Senator Church but with respect to the first paragraph, I believe we can be criticized unless we specifically stated there were sources and methods that we did not wish declassified inaddition to the physical jeopardy regarding individual names.

2. With respect to the second paragraph, if we continue to be in dispute with the Committee's draft, we should detail our complaint. I don't think we can afford to leave this issue to oral communication.

3. Finally, the third paragraph seems to declare war. It would seem to me that we should be talking to Miller before writing to Church.

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Friday - 21 November 1975

25X1 1. [redacted] LIAISON Received a call from Jack Brady, House International Relations Committee staff, who called my attention to a New York Times article this morning concerning the Director's testimony on 12 November before the Committee. He seemed to be very upset about the leak and said he was sending the Chairman a note on it. I told him the Director was beginning to have reservations about his ability to continue to provide classified information to committees of Congress and Brady said he would put that in his note to the Chairman also.

25X1 2. [redacted] LIAISON Received a call from Chuck Snodgrass, on the staff of the House Appropriations Committee, who wanted to know if we could provide him with a copy of the Senate Select Committee report on assassinations. He said he had tried the Select Committee but they have no copies to give out. After checking, I told him we had no extra copies but that GPO would have them on Monday. He appreciated my checking.

25X1 3. [redacted] LIAISON Dorothy Fosdick, on the staff of the Senate Government Operations Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations, called and said that Senator Henry Jackson (D., Wash.) wanted her and Richard Perle, also of that staff, to have a briefing from Carl Duckett (DDS&T) first thing Monday morning on SALT I and the whole question of compliance. I told her I would check with Duckett.

25X1 4. [redacted] LIAISON Charles Lombard, Minority Counsel, Aeronautical and Space Sciences Committee, called and asked if we would provide him, at the Space Sciences Committee, with FBIS coverage of foreign press comments on the release of the "assassination report."
